Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurThis collection of sharply observed animal-themed tales is a delight, told with David Sedaris's trademark blend of hilarity and goodnatureddness. Though the characters may not be human, the situations in these stories bear an uncanny resemblance to the insanity of our own everyday interactions.In 'The Toad, the Turtle, and the Duck', three strangers commiserate about animal bureaucracy while waiting in a complaint line. In 'Hello Kitty', a cynical feline struggles to sit through his prison-mandated AA meetings.

In 'The Squirrel and the Chipmunk', a pair of star-crossed lovers is separated by prejudiced family members. Revue de presse "Outrageous....Wonderful...Sedaris's anthropomorphized creatures may seem domesticated, but this book, like his more familiar essays, is...wildly inspired--and a rip-roaring hoot." Heller McAlpin, NPR "Wickedly funny....These are some of Sedaris's best stories...The animals have given Sedaris's humor some new teeth: tiny and sharp, and sometimes even ready to draw blood." Carolyn Kellogg, Los Angeles Times "Wry and amusing." Chris Jones, Chicago Tribune "For the strong-stomached, these tales are toxic little treats, fun-sized Snicker bars with a nougaty strychnine center." Leah Greenblatt, Entertainment Weekly "Great fun." Craig Wilson, USA Today "The funniest man on the planet."
