Prsentation de l'diteurIt had been one of the worst crashes in airline history, killing over 300 people and leaving only one survivor. Now the dead were buried and the town of Eton tried to forget. But one man could not rest. In James Herbert's The Survivor, Keller walks from the flames of the wreck, driven on by unseen forces, seeking the answer to his own survival. Finally the town is forced to face the shocking, dreadful truth about what was buried in the old graveyard. And a truth Keller did not want to believe . . .
