Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurOne of the stories from the bestselling historical fiction Falco series.'Rats are always bigger than you expect...'Marcus Didius Falco, ancient Rome's hangdog investigator, hates sharing a cell with a rodent - though being bailed by his old mother is almost as embarrassing. His highborn girlfriend can't decide if she wants him and Titus Caesar's reward for past services is a wet fish. Hoping for a better life, or at least a better apartment, he takes on new clients.On the elegant slopes of the Pincian Hill, three nouveaux riches freedmen with two flashy wives are under siege by a clever redhead. Severina Zotica has a foul-mouthed parrot, an odd connection with a snake dancer - and a very suspicious past. As he pursues this flame-haired fortune-hunter, Falco finds himself beset by violent rent-racketeers, poisoners, and women without consciences who have dangerous designs on him...Revue de presse"Another redolent dip into corruption in Vespasian's Rome . original and delightful" (Sunday Times)"Original and endearing . one can only hope that Falco will be around for as long as Flashman" (Time Out)"The most purely entertaining of recent crime novels" (New Statesman and Society)Prsentation de l'diteurOne of the stories from the bestselling historical
